THE QUALIFICATION

Today's competitive marketplace demands a qualification that is desirable by employers. Those that undertake a BTEC programme will not only have the opportunity to enhance their skills and knowledge in a specific area of law, but also enhance client care within their firm.

These unique subject specific paralegal programmes have been developed by CLT, the UK's leading provider of post qualification training and accreditation for professionals working in the legal sector.

WHO'S IT FOR?

These programmes are suitable for those who have little or no legal background, are new to an area of practice or may have learnt on the job and wish to 'fill in the blanks'. Offering a flexible method of study, they combine study materials with Internet learning. They are designed to be practical and user friendly, giving individuals the skills and knowledge they need to do the job and provide confidence in the workplace.

On successful completion, students will be awarded a BTEC Advanced Diploma Level 3 in Paralegal Work. This transferable qualification is recognised by universities, FE colleges and employers.

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

- The knowledge and skills to perform the core key competences within the practice area
- An understanding of legal terms and concepts
- Attain a greater appreciation of legal issues
- How to deal with clients confidently
- Develop your research skills

WHAT IS THE TIME COMMITMENT?

There are six units in each practice area complemented by two written assignments. We recommend students study one unit each month to complete the programme in six months.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

There are no formal criteria required to undertake the programme. Students will need basic computer skills in word processing, use of the Internet and email, as self assessment tests are taken online and assignments must be submitted via email.

HOW TO ENROL

Enrolment may take place at any time. Upon registration students will be issued with their unique student login number, which permits them access to a dedicated website and a student handbook which provides detailed guidelines on how to complete the programme.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

- The programme is structured in units.
- There are six units and they must be completed in numerical order.
- The self assessment questions at the end of each unit are multiple choice and allow learners to monitor their own understanding of the unit. Self assessment questions are completed online. They are not compulsory.
- Answers to the self assessment exercises are accessed online via a unique student login number.
- There are two assessed written assignments to be submitted online, one to be undertaken upon completion of unit 3, the other upon completion of unit 6.
- Tutor support is available and individual feedback will be given on each assignment submitted.

DISTANCE LEARNING MATERIALS

The learning materials comprise of core text combined with task orientated research projects. What previous students have said about the Paralegal Programmes:

“My job has started to change direction in that I now assist my boss with the work. I also go out to see clients who are unable to attend at our offices to take instructions for Wills and Enduring Powers of Attorney. The course has given me the confidence and the knowledge to do this”

Jo Hudson, Subject area studied: Wills & Probate

“The materials you are provided with on the course are excellent, as is the feedback you are given in respect of the assignments. I keep the file of materials and notes on my desk and I use them as an every day reference resource”

Victoria Brooks, Subject area studied: Civil Litigation

“I am a 28 year old Conveyancing Manager based within a firm of four offices and ninety staff. I have worked in Conveyancing for the last ten years and started out as an office junior. I passed a higher single subject diploma in Conveyancing in 2006, and decided to enrol on another course. I found the course very useful and the study format supplied very clear and structured and would recommend this course to any person who wants to gain a certificate in an area of law. I found the course was straightforward and was pleased that I managed to complete it within a six-month period as working full time I have very limited time to study”

Michelle Kingshott, Subject area studied: Residential Conveyancing

“I would highly recommend the course to my colleagues, and currently another member of the company is progressing through the course. Since completing the course I have been promoted to Wills Manager and our team are now producing Wills nationally for a very well-known company. I am sure the course played a part in this!”

Liz Cottle, Subject area studied: Wills & Probate
