2. Disabilities/Special Needs Applications

- 2.1 Providing information

Candidates with a disability must inform CLT by providing details about their disability with the booking form. This information will be recorded on CLT's central booking system and on CLT's tracking spreadsheet. Information provided will be used solely to deal with your special needs request and to provide statistics to The Law Society/SRA (all details are anonymised) of the type of special needs requests received and how it has been catered for.

Candidates must provide CLT, at least 20 working days prior to the training/assessment, with medical evidence, not more than 12 months old, and/or other suitable evidence in support of their application which should:

- Outline his/her disability;
- Set out the reasonable adjustments that will be required; and
- In the case of accidental injuries or acute illness, or if a candidate's disability is diagnosed after enrolment, the candidate must contact the Programme Co-ordinator as soon as possible after the injury or illness occurs.

2.2 Arrangements

2.2.1 Special needs

The Programme Co-ordinator will ensure, where possible, that the necessary arrangements to deal with a candidate's special needs are put in place. However, there may be occasions where such needs cannot be met due to financial constraints and/or other constraints outside CLT's control.

Confirmation of the arrangements agreed with the candidate will be sent to the candidate in advance of the assessment/course.

CLT will reserve the right to cancel or refuse a candidate's enrolment for training/assessment where insufficient notice has been given to CLT to make the reasonable adjustments required.

Failure to notify CLT about a disability prior to the assessment taking place cannot be considered as a mitigating factor when considering a candidate's performance in the assessment nor can reasonable adjustments be made once the assessment has taken place.

2.2.2 Religious needs

Candidates with specific religious requirements should notify CLT 20 working days prior to the date of the assessment.

CLT will make every reasonable effort to meet a candidate's needs. However, there may be occasions where such needs cannot be met due to financial constraints and/or other constraints outside of CLT's control.
